

2008 NCPIC Short Film Competition Winner Announced

The 2008 Short Film Competition generated a large number of diverse, thoughtful and creative entries from Australian young people. Scroll down to view the winning entry, runners-up and other finalists.

The winner

It's not funny

Joshua Turner, Metro South TAFE, QLD

<object height="344" width="425">

</object>

The runners-up

OJ breaks free

Paul Talbot, Alexis Grimm, Deanna Cubby, Boggabilla Central School, NSW

Boggabilla Central School is located in remote North-West NSW and has an enrolment of 180 students. 100% of these students are Indigenous Australians.

<object height="344" width="425">

</object>

Untitled

Jerome Jouneau

<object height="344" width="425">

</object>

The finalists

Notice

Aleksandar Trofin

<object height="344" width="425">

</object>

Don't get lost

Tristan Guillaume

<object height="344" width="425">

</object>

A day in the life

James Dressen, Selby Press

<object height="344" width="425">

</object>